

in a factory painting bouncy castles and a waterbed big enough for four of us.

I bought Bewick Road because the people who owned it wouldn't sell to the Jewish Community. We got it cheap because they were racists.

